scrutinise into the condition of my mind at tl rime; how I was made to swallow even tl above diabolical pill, believing every thing be true, in my foolish and child-like simplicity and what a dupe, 1 proved, in the hands < delusional verities; taking all those cock an bull stories for real facts in all good conscienc* Later on, it set me thinking and I tried 1 probe into the depths of these supernatur; trickeries, in order to ascertain, whether the were meant for a mere trick only, that th Supernals gave themselves the licence, to pla on me, enjoying a little innocent mirth at m cost thereby, or whether, there was any deepe meaning, underlying such covert guile, or bot I seemed to see some light thrown on the matte by and by. It appears to me now, that ther must be some very sharp mental boundar lines, maintained by the Supernals, whether b] hook or crook, in order to maintain respective ly, the clear-cut and well-defined individua lines of growth, on either side <jf existence, witl the help of our natural mental predisposition!

or by means of some artificial creation of thei own, however shrewd and cunning; —just ir same way, as we do, on our physical plane